

Welcome Home

I'd like to offer you a free Get Acquainted Session. Let's set up a time to have a 15 minute phone conversation where I'll explain how we can work together through Welcome Home and you can tell me more about yourself and ask any questions you might have.

Most of my clients are either ready to clear clutter and simplify their lives or they are in a time of transition and want to create a personal ceremony to mark a significant change.

In preparation for our Get Acquainted Session, I have two forms that I will send you called "How's Your Home Life" and "Life with Ceremony". Most people find filling out these forms a useful tool to bring more clarity to their own unique situation. I ask that you send the completed form to me a day ahead of time as preparation for our "Get Acquainted Session". How does this sound?
